

Securities Trading Policy

Of OneAll International Limited

ACN: 606 740 701

Adopted on August 19,2016

1 Application

Who does this Policy apply to?

- 1.1 OneAll International Limited (Company) has adopted this Securities Trading Policy (Policy) to regulate Trading in Shares or related Securities of the Company. This Policy applies to all Employees of the Company and the Group.

Reasons for this Policy

- 1.2 The Company has adopted this Policy to regulate Trading by Employees in the Company's Securities.
- 1.3 All Employees are required to conduct their personal investment activity in a manner that is lawful and avoids conflicts of interest between the Employee's personal interests and those of the Group. The Company is also keen to promote shareholder and general market confidence in the Group.
- 1.4 This Policy is specifically designed to:
- (a) raise awareness and minimise any potential for breach of the prohibitions on insider trading contained in Part 7.10 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) – see section 4 for further details; and
 - (b) meet the Company's obligations under the ASX Listing Rules to maintain a Securities Trading Policy.

2 Definitions and interpretation

- 2.1 In this Policy, unless the context otherwise requires:

ASX means Australian Securities Exchange;

ASX Listing Rules means the listing rules of ASX applicable to the Company from time to time;

Board means the board of directors of the Company;

Closed Period means any time other than during a Trading Window;

Company means OneAll International Limited (ACN 606 740 701);

Director means any director of the Company;

Employee means a person who is a director, officer and Senior Executives of the Company or the Group;

Exceptional Circumstances means circumstances which the Chairman (or the Chief Executive Officer in the case of proposed Trading by the Chairman) decides are so exceptional that the proposed Trading of Securities is the only reasonable course of action available, which can include the circumstances set out in section 7.1;

Group means the Company and its controlled entities;

Prohibited Period means any Closed Period and any additional period from time to time when the Chairman or Board impose a prohibition on Trading;

Shares means ordinary shares of the Company;

Securities includes Shares, options, performance rights and other securities issued by the Company which are convertible into Shares, as well as financial products issued or created over Shares by third parties, including structured financial products, swaps, futures contracts, contracts for differences, spread bets, options, warrants, depositary receipts or other derivatives over or related to the performance of Shares;

Senior Executives means:

- (a) the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer;
- (b) all direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer;
- (c) Department Heads;
- (d) any other person who is one of the Group's key management personnel (as defined in AASB 124 Related Party Disclosures), including those persons identified as key management personnel in the Company's most recent Annual Report; and
- (e) any other Employee who has been notified that the Board designates them as a Senior Executive for the purposes of this Policy.

Trade or Trading means:

- (a) buying or selling Securities;
- (b) entering into an agreement to buy or sell Securities; or
- (c) exercising options, rights or awards to acquire Securities; and

Trading Window means any period specified in clauses 3.5 to 3.7.

2.2 In this Policy, a reference to writing includes writing delivered by email.

3 Trading Windows

Trading may occur only during Trading Windows

- 3.1 All Trading in Securities by Employees must be in accordance with this Policy and generally will only be permitted during Trading Windows and must not occur during any Prohibited Period.
- 3.2 No Trading in Securities may occur outside of Trading Windows without the prior written permission of the Chairman (or an officer of the Company designated by the Chairman), unless an exception in section 3.8 applies. Permission to sell (but not purchase) Securities will ordinarily only be granted in Exceptional Circumstances and only in the event that the person involved is not in possession of inside information affecting Securities. Requests for permission should generally be made through the Company Secretary. Refer to section 7 for further details.

When is Trading during a Trading Window prohibited?

- 3.3 Even if the Trading Window is open, the laws prohibiting insider trading continue to apply to Employees so that they must not trade if they possess any inside information. Refer to section 4 of this Policy for further details.
- 3.4 Employees are prohibited from:

- (a) (short term trading) other than when an Employee exercises employee options or performance rights to acquire Shares at the specified exercise price, Trading in Securities (or an interest in Securities) on a short-term trading basis. Short-term trading includes buying and selling Securities within a three month period, and entering into other short-term dealings (e.g. forward contracts);
- (b) (hedging unvested awards) Trading in Securities which operate to limit the economic risk of an Employee's holdings of unvested Securities granted under an employee incentive plan; or
- (c) (short positions) Trading in Securities which enable an Employee to profit from or limit the economic risk of a decrease in the market price of Shares.

When are the Trading Windows?

- 3.5 The Trading Windows during which Employees will be permitted to Trade Securities will be notified by the Company Secretary on the Company's website. These will generally be open at the following times:
- (a) for a period of six weeks commencing on the trading day following the public release by the Company of its preliminary annual and half year results to the ASX;
 - (b) for a period commencing on the trading day following lodgement of the Company's Annual Report with the ASX and continuing for up to one month after the holding of the Company's Annual General Meeting; and
 - (c) during the offer period (for so long as it remains open) under any publicly available prospectus issued by the Company offering Securities.
- 3.6 Notwithstanding the time periods described above, the Company may declare a Trading Window closed at any time at its absolute discretion and without prior notice. For example, this could occur where directors of the Company believe that certain Employees may hold inside information relating to the Group.
- 3.7 Trading windows will not automatically be opened at the times described above. Details of when a Trading Window is opened or closed and any Prohibited Periods will be posted on the Company's website. Employees should check the website to confirm that a relevant Trading Window applies before Trading in any Securities.

Exceptions to the Prohibited Periods

- 3.8 The following exceptions to the Trading restrictions during Prohibited Periods apply even if a Trading Window is not open (but subject always to insider trading laws):
- (a) an exercise (but not the sale of Securities following exercise) of an option or other right to acquire Shares under an employee incentive scheme or the conversion of a convertible security, where the final date for the exercise of the option or right, or the conversion of the security falls during a Prohibited Period;
 - (b) Trading under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the shareholders such as a rights or entitlement issue, a security purchase plan, or an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the Board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata issue;

- (c) Trading where the beneficial interest in the relevant Securities does not change. This includes:
 - (i) a dealing by which the relevant Securities are transferred by an Employee from their personal holdings to a superannuation fund of which they are a beneficiary;
 - (ii) the withdrawal of Securities from an employee incentive scheme and the transfer of that Security to the participant's personal holdings or superannuation fund of which they are a beneficiary;
- (d) an acquisition of shares under a dividend reinvestment plan, provided the election to participate in the dividend reinvestment plan was made before the Employee came into possession of any inside information;
- (e) an Employee accepting a takeover bid or transferring Securities under a scheme of arrangement in respect of the Company; and
- (f) sales of Securities which are non-volitional on the part of the Employee such as margin calls or close out sales under margin lending arrangements.

Escrow

- 3.9 Any Employee who holds Securities in escrow (either as ASX restricted securities or through voluntary escrow arrangements) must comply with the terms of any applicable escrow arrangements and will be unable to trade in Securities during that time. Once the escrow arrangements have ended, the Employee is not free to Trade in their Securities unless and until permitted by this Policy.

4 Insider trading laws

What is insider trading?

- 4.1 Under the Corporations Act, all Employees and former Employees are prohibited in all circumstances from Trading in Securities at any time if they are in possession of inside information regarding the Group and its Securities whether or not a Trading Window is open.
- 4.2 Inside information is information which is not generally available to the public and which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the relevant securities or would be likely to influence a person in deciding whether or not to acquire or dispose of those securities.
- 4.3 Employees are also prohibited from procuring others to Trade in Securities when the Employee is precluded from Trading.
- 4.4 In addition, Employees:
- (a) must not communicate inside information to someone who might then:
 - (i) Trade in Securities; or
 - (ii) procure another person to Trade in Securities, including to any family members, relatives and entities which the Employee controls; and
 - (b) should seek to ensure that third parties who come into possession of inside information preserve its confidentiality and do not Trade while in possession of that information. This will usually be achieved by means of a written confidentiality agreement.

What are the consequences of insider trading?

- 4.5 Insider trading is strictly prohibited by law, and it is important that all Employees do not breach that prohibition. Insider trading, or the perception of insider trading, by any Employee will not be tolerated. The existence of a personal financial emergency or hardship does not excuse non-compliance with this Policy. It is important that the Group and its Employees do not participate in any insider trading activities, but also that we avoid any appearance of insider trading.
- 4.6 Any allegation of insider trading would be likely to have a serious detrimental impact on the Group and its business and all Employees must be seen to be actively and diligently upholding the law and complying with this Policy.
- 4.7 Insider trading is a crime and can result in imprisonment, fines, orders to pay compensation and other penalties against the Company and Employees.

5 Insider trading in securities of other companies

- 5.1 While in general Employees are free to deal in securities of other listed companies, the insider trading prohibitions under the Corporations Act include dealings not only in the Company's Securities but also those of other listed companies with which the Company may be dealing (including the Group's business partners) where an Employee possesses inside information in relation to that other company.
- 5.2 If an Employee is aware of inside information in respect of another company, the Employee should not trade or deal in the securities of the company that it affects. For example, where the Employee is aware that the Group is about to sign a major agreement with another company, the Employee should not buy securities in either the Company or the other company.

6 Pre-notification and reporting of Trades

Who and when must give notification of an intention to Trade?

- 6.1 When permitted to Trade in accordance with this Policy, all Directors and Senior Executives must give at least two trading days' (or such shorter period approved by the Chairman) prior written notice (which may be given by email) of any proposed Trading in Securities and confirm that they do not possess any inside information:
 - (a) in the case of Senior Executives, to the Company Secretary;
 - (b) in the case of a Director of the Company, to the Chairman;
 - (c) in the case of the Chairman, to the Deputy Chairman or lead independent director of the Company.

What Trading does not need to be pre-notified?

- 6.2 The only Trades that do not need to be pre-notified are those that are permitted under a specific exception in section 3.8.

Reporting of completed Trades

- 6.3 Once a Trade of any Securities has been made by or for a Director or a Senior Executive, details of the Trade, including the number and price of Securities involved, must be reported by e-mail to the Company Secretary.
- 6.4 Further, Directors of the Company must immediately report all acquisitions or disposals or other Trading of Securities, including date, price and volume, without exception so that the Company can comply with its ASX reporting obligations. Each disclosure notice given to ASX will need to state whether the relevant trade occurred outside of a Trading Window and, if so, whether prior written clearance was provided.

7 Exceptional circumstance

- 7.1 Employees may make requests for permission to Trade outside of the Trading Windows only in Exceptional Circumstances such as:
- (a) severe financial hardship, where the Employee has pressing financial commitments that cannot be satisfied otherwise than by selling their interest in the Company's Securities. A liability to pay tax would not normally constitute such severe financial hardship;
 - (b) if the Trading is required by a court order, or there are court enforceable undertakings, for example in a bona fide family settlement, to sell or transfer Securities or there is some other overriding legal or regulatory requirement for them to do so; or
 - (c) any other circumstances that the Chairman accepts as being sufficiently exceptional.
- 7.2 A request for permission to Trade due to Exceptional Circumstances should be made by written notice to the Company Secretary outlining:
- (a) the name of the Employee;
 - (b) details of the Exceptional Circumstances and the reasons for requesting permission to Trade;
 - (c) the type of proposed transaction (purchase, sale, etc.); and
 - (d) the number and type of Securities involved.
- 7.3 The Company Secretary will confer with the Chairman in relation to any proposed Trading due to Exceptional Circumstances. Permission to Trade is entirely discretionary, and Employees should not Trade in the expectation that permission will later be given. If permission to Trade is granted, it will be given in writing and the Employee may only Trade the Securities during the period specified in the permission.

8 Margin lending arrangements

- 8.1 Directors of the Company and Senior Executives may not include their Securities in a margin loan portfolio or otherwise Trade in Securities pursuant to a margin lending arrangement (Margin Lending Arrangement) without first obtaining the consent of the Chairman (or, in the case of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman or lead independent director of the Company).
- 8.2 A Margin Lending Arrangement would include:

- (a) entering into a margin lending arrangement in respect of Securities;
- (b) transferring Securities into an existing margin loan account; and
- (c) selling Securities to satisfy a call pursuant to a margin loan except where the holder of Securities has no control over the sale.

8.3 The Company may, at its discretion, make any consent granted in accordance with section 8.1 conditional upon such terms and conditions as the Company sees fit (for example, specifying the circumstances in which the Securities may be sold to satisfy a margin call).

9 Review of Policy and compliance with Policy

- 9.1 This Policy will be reviewed regularly by the Board having regard to the changing circumstances of the Company and any changes to this Policy will be notified to ASX. If Employees have any comments or views concerning the operation or effectiveness of this Policy, they should be communicated to the Company Secretary.
- 9.2 The Company Secretary is responsible for reviewing and reporting to the Board at least quarterly on compliance with, and the effectiveness of, this Policy.

10 Breaches

- 10.1 Breaches of this Policy will be viewed seriously and may lead to disciplinary action being taken against the relevant Employee. In serious cases, disciplinary action may include dismissal. Any Employee who becomes aware of a violation of this Policy should immediately report the violation to the Company Secretary.
- 10.2 It should be noted that, in some circumstances, the Company may be obliged to notify regulatory and/or criminal authorities of a serious breach of this Policy.

11 Questions

- 11.1 For questions about the operation of this Policy, please contact the Company Secretary.